

Building for sale in the Old Town, Casa Donovan, 2,475 m² of construction

Descripción

Excellent investment opportunity in one of Panama City's most promising areas for tourism, commerce, and property appreciation. The Donovan Building is strategically located on Avenida B, at the entrance to the Old Quarter, a prime location that combines historical charm with a high volume of national and international visitors. In addition to its exceptional location, the property benefits from the tax incentives provided by the special legislation for the Old Quarter, making it a highly attractive option for investors seeking to maximize the profitability and growth potential of their investment.

Currently, the property operates with short-term rental apartments, generating recurring income, and has an approved redevelopment project that significantly increases its profitability potential.
