- General description:

"Bahía Honda" is one of the few areas of Panama still untouched by development, and one of the preferred hidden vacation spots and getaways for some of the world's super-rich. Experience wildlife in its most primitive state on this bayfront land where you can appreciate the true beauty of Panama's Pacific coast. This parcel of land for sale is located in Bahía Honda, in the province of Veraguas, where the majority of the neighbors who own thousands of hectares have bought them to preserve and maintain without developing. Neighbors like Mick Jagger, Mel Gibson, among others

Fauna and Flora: This particular piece of land for sale in Bahía Honda faces a bay where you will be able to see dolphins, sea turtles and where the fishing is absolutely and positively world class. From several sites the views are spectacular, where you can see the island of Coiba, a 15-minute boat ride and home to one of the richest regions of marine life diversity and a protected area.

The 36-hectare piece has a right of possession in the titling process, it has a beach frontage and the sea.
